Method to hard boil eggs:

1. First gather 12 eggs and a large pot.
2. Fill it with water to cover 2 inches over the eggs and add 1 tablespoon of white vinegar.
3. Turn the heat on high and wait for it to boil then cover the pan with a lid, remove from the heat and let sit for 12 minutes.
4. Prepare an ice bath with a bowl, water and ice cubes.
5. After 12 minutes, remove the eggs from the pot and place them in the water bath for several minutes until cooled down.
6. Take the eggs out and remove all the shells from the eggs, either by hand or use a glass with about 1 inch of water in it, cover and shake.
7. Place the eggs into cold water until ready to use.

Method

Step 1

Heat the oil to 350 degrees

Step 2

Cut all the hard boiled eggs in half lengthwise, “carefully” remove the yolk into a bowl (usually by squeezing it a little bit). Store the egg whites in cold water until ready to use.

Step 3

Set up a breading station, 3 containers, 1 with the flour, 1 with the raw eggs and 1 with the panko, in that order from left to right.

Step 4

Add mayonnaise, relish, both mustards, hot sauce to the egg yolks and whisk or mash until smooth, season to taste with salt and pepper.

Step 5

Put the mixture into a piping or zip lock bag, remove air, close the bag and set aside

Step 6

Get the egg whites and one at a time, fully coat in the flour, submerge into the egg wash and fully coat with panko crumbs. Carefully set onto a sheet tray until all are done.

Step 7

Deep fry 2 to 3 minutes or until golden brown. Every now and then use the mesh strainer to roll the eggs around in the oil for even cooking. This can be done in small batches if the fry pan is small.

Step 8

Place the eggs onto a paper towel in the sheet tray.

Step 9

Cut 1/2 inch off the corner of the piping or zip lock bag and fill the eggs with the mixture. (Fancier if you use pastry tips).

Step 10

Sprinkle cayenne pepper powder or smoked paprika sprinkled on top

Step 11

Top with a light coating of finely chopped parsley.

Step 12
